Why We Do This

Our Mission: Tucker Maxon School teaches children who are deaf and hearing to listen, talk, learn, and achieve excellence together.

Our Goal: To help every child reach their full potential in school and in life.

The Problem: Tucker Maxon receives no funding from the State of Oregon (unlike most schools like ours across the country).

Our Budget: 50% fundraising, 50% tuition.

Help us continue our work for 75 more years!

Auction Information

Begin Here

Vault your credit card at registration and start bidding.

Silent Auction

All items have a corresponding Bid Sheet placed near the item for bidding. Simply put your Bidder Number tied to your credit card in the space provided, and the bid amount you wish to pay. Once bidding has closed, if you are the last name of the sheet, you win the item! All time-based items, like vacation packages, expire September 23, 2024, unless otherwise noted.

Live Auction

Just like other live auctions, you received a Bidder Number in your welcome packet. You will use this number when bidding during the Live Auction. Raise your Bidder Number high and hold it there until your number has been called by the auctioneer. All time-based items, like vacation packages, expire September 23, 2024, unless otherwise noted.

Banking/Payment

All payments for purchases and/or donations are due the night of the auction. We gladly accept personal checks (preferred), or Visa. All sales are final. We are unable to refund or exchange items.

Item Pickup

All items should be picked up the night of the auction in the foyer after 9:15 PM. For an additional $100 donation on the night of the event, we will deliver larger items to your home within 10 days of the event.

Depoe Bay

Oceanfront home with picture windows, balcony & elevator - watch for whales!

There are few better places to experience the whale-watching capital of the Oregon Coast than this oceanfront townhome on the rugged, rocky shores of Depoe Bay. You'll be treated to commanding views of the Pacific Ocean from the spacious private balcony, the living area with its large picture windows, and even the kitchen, so you can watch for whale spouts on the horizon as you cook. Maximum occupancy 6 in 2 queen and 1 double bed, 3 bathrooms.

This oceanfront townhome is located right on the shores of Depoe Bay, less than a mile north of the heart of downtown. It's a fantastic place for watching whales as they migrate between March and December, with the Depoe Bay Whale Watching Center, several observation decks, and charter boats waiting to take you out to sea in town. Catch a glimpse of the "spouting horn" that sprays the town's harbor during winter storms, or head immediately north of the house to take in another glorious view from Boiler Bay State Scenic Viewpoint. Just two hours from Portland.

A Week in Wenatchee, WA

Discover the “Apple Capital of the World.”

This A-frame cabin is 3 miles south of downtown Wenatchee and sits on 1.6 acres overlooking the Columbia River and the Wenatchee Valley. It has 3 bedrooms with queen beds, 2 in the daylight basement and 1 on the main floor and a queen bed and queen + single bunk bed in the loft. There is also a game room in the basement with a foosball table and an old-school TV with built-in VHS tape and DVD players. There are 1.75 baths, the shower only bathroom in the basement and the shower/tub on the main floor. The small “quaint” (no automatic dishwasher) kitchen looks into the living/dining area, which has a dining table that seats 8, but there are chairs for 10 and you can squeeze that many around the table if you don’t mind cozy. There are front and back decks with tables and chairs and a Weber Kettle BBQ on the back deck. Tour the wineries and museums, or take a boat ride on the Columbia.
